GUIDELINES

INTRODUCTION

These guidelines stipulate the requirements for a Commonwealth Scholarship (CS), CSU Science Scholarship and CSU Excellence Scholarship recipient to suspend their scholarship and payment in the event that they are not enrolled (i.e. taking an approved Leave of Absence) for a particular session or have proven special circumstances affecting their enrolment.

In accordance with the Commonwealth Scholarship Guidelines, CSU Science and CSU Excellence Guidelines a recipient who is not enrolled in any subjects for a particular session fails to meet the eligibility requirements and will have their scholarship terminated unless they have been granted a Scholarship Suspension.

POLICY

1.1 Scholarship recipients are only permitted to suspend their scholarship payment one session at a time, with a maximum of 2 sessions suspension allowed.

1.2 Information about circumstances that lead to a scholarship recipient requesting a suspension of their scholarship payment must be documented. Supporting documentation must accompany the Scholarship Suspension Form.

1.3 Suspension of a Scholarship payment will not automatically be granted. The Scholarship Management Committee will independently assess each case.

1.4 Scholarship recipients returning to study following a period of Scholarship Suspension will automatically be included in those required to have their ongoing eligibility assessed in accordance with their Scholarship Guidelines and will not be required to reapply for the scholarship.

1.5 Scholarship recipients will be notified of the outcome of their scholarship suspension application within 6 weeks of the HECS Census Date of the session suspension is required.

1.6 To be eligible to suspend their scholarship payment, recipients must:
   - be granted an Approved Leave of Absence for that session, recipients will need to arrange this via the Online Administration Office accessed though my.csu or contact the Student Administration Office
   - have proven special circumstances; and
   - complete a Scholarship Payment Suspension Form.
