Terms and Conditions for the Charles Sturt University’s Creative Writing Competition, 2014 are as follows:

1. Entrants must be aged between 16 and 21 years.
2. Entrants must be in Year 10, 11 or 12 at high school or be a student at TAFE.
3. Entrants must reside or be attending school or TAFE in New South Wales, Victoria or the Australian Capital Territory.
4. Entrants must submit original works of no more than 1000 words.
5. Entries must be submitted by 5pm on Friday, 10th June, 2014.
6. Privacy of individuals must be preserved. All identifiers must be altered so that no individual or community could be identified. For example, it would not be acceptable to identify a very rare genetic disorder and identify the small community in which the individual is domiciled. By submitting an entry in this competition, entrants do so in the understanding that their work may be published. Entries may also be modified to meet editorial guidelines and other program requirements.
7. The Intellectual Property and editorial rights will be with Charles Sturt University with suitable acknowledgement to the author(s).
8. The Promoter collects your personal information in order to conduct the Promotion and to enable the Promoter to make you more aware of CSU. For these purposes the Promoter may disclose such information to third parties, including, but not limited to, other entrants or voters to tell them who has entered or won the competition, prize suppliers and if required, to Australian regulatory authorities.
9. Entrants may be contacted by Charles Sturt University by means of phone, SMS, email or mail for marketing purposes.
10. The decision of the Judging Panel drawn from Charles Sturt University School of Humanities and Social Science shall be final with no appeal possible. No correspondence regarding judging will be entered into.
