February 2003

A Survey of Waggas' Early Years

At the Archives

What You Should Know

Join Our Exhibition

On Saturday 1 February, 10am - 4pm

The prime source of information about Waggas' early years is the Archives. They contain a wealth of material on the town's history, including maps, photographs, and other documents. The Archives are open to the public, and you can request to view specific items. To find out more, visit the Archives website or contact them directly.