

CSU GRADES

As in Assessment Regulations 30 April 2011

The following grades are to be awarded for subjects offered by the University and in which students remain enrolled past the census date. Students who withdraw prior to the census date will not be recorded as having been enrolled in the subject (refer to clause 13 of the Enrolment Regulations).

Grading Scale

HD High Distinction:

an outstanding level of achievement in relation to the assessment process (85%-100%);

DI Distinction:

a high level of achievement in relation to the assessment process (75-84%);

CR Credit:

a better than satisfactory level of achievement in relation to the assessment process (65-74%);

PS Pass:

a satisfactory level of achievement in relation to the assessment process (50-64%);

PT Terminating Pass

(See Regulation 8). This grade was not awarded after Spring Session 1994;

FL Fail:

an unsatisfactory level of achievement in relation to the summative assessment process providing at least one summative assessment task has been assessed (0-49%). (See also clause 13 of the Enrolment Regulations)

Percentage Ranges

The percentage ranges for the above grades relate to the final scaled aggregate mark for the subject. The scaled aggregate mark for a student may be different from the sum or aggregation of the raw marks awarded for individual assessable items in the subject.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

The satisfactory (SY) and unsatisfactory (US) grading scale applies to:

- subjects identified by the Faculty Boards as practical work subjects;
- coursework identified by the Faculty Boards as industrial experience components;
- theses or other examinable works undertaken in master programs by research and doctoral programs (including research and coursework professional doctoral programs); and
- other subjects approved by the Academic Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty Boards.

Bachelor Honours Dissertation Grades

From 2001, a passing grade for a bachelor honours project or dissertation shall indicate the class of honours awarded for the dissertation. This will not necessarily be the same as the class of honours awarded for the course overall.

Passing grades for project/dissertations are awarded as follows:

H1	Class 1
H2a	Class 2, Division 1
H2b	Class 2, Division 2
H3	Class 3

Other SymbolsAA Additional Assessment

The subject has been marginally failed but the student has been invited to complete item/s of additional assessment which, if completed at the prescribed standard, will result in the student passing the subject (see clause 8).

AE Additional Examination

The subject has been marginally failed but the student has been invited to sit a further formal examination which, if completed at the prescribed standard, will result in the student passing the subject (see clause 8).

AW Approved withdrawal:

Approval was granted for the student to withdraw from the subject without incurring a failure in the subject. This grade shall normally be granted at any stage during the teaching session where misadventure or extenuating circumstances are such as to prevent a student from completing the subject within reasonable time and where the student was making satisfactory progress at the time the misadventure or extenuating circumstances occurred.

The purpose of this grade is to indicate withdrawal from a subject which the student is unable to complete for acceptable reasons.

At graduation, subjects graded AW are deleted from a graduate's transcript (introduced in 1996).

FW Fail Withdrawn:

From January 2007 Fail withdrawn means the student was enrolled in the subject but was not assessed on any of the summative assessment tasks (see also clause 13 of the Enrolment Regulations).

GP Grade Pending:

A substantive grade must be awarded when work outstanding is submitted. Assessment must normally be finalised by the end of the second teaching week of the following session (see clause 7.5.1 below).

IP In Progress:

Not yet due for final grade; subject taken over two or more sessions. The grade IP will be entered against the subject for each session except the final session when a substantive grade will be awarded.

TA To be Assessed:

Result is not yet available. A substantive grade will be awarded when assessment is completed.

NA Not Assessed:

The student was not assessed in this subject.

SX Supplementary Examination:

A substantive grade will be awarded when the supplementary examination has been held.

WD Withheld/Fees Due:

The result is withheld for administrative reasons. A substantive grade will be released when the matter is resolved.
