Hon Timothy Andrew Fischer Ac
‘The 3r’s; Riverina, Rome And Rail’

This lecture is free and open to the public.

This Farewell Nowik Address by Mr Tim Fischer will include his views on the Riverina, association with rail and new position at the Vatican commencing in January.

A CSU Honorary Doctorate recipient, Mr Fischer is a son of the Riverina, and one who has served its citizens, University and this Nation with distinction.

The author of three successful books, Mr Fischer is often referred to as the “boy from Boree Creek” or “Two-Minute Tim.” With over 30 years of political life, he has been many things to many people including army officer, farmer, politician, humanitarian, diplomat, negotiator, husband, father and a leader in every sense of the word.

A former NSW State Parliamentarian, leader of the National Party, Minister for Trade and Deputy Prime Minister, Mr Fisher is currently a consultant, company director and multiple patron.

Charles Sturt University, Albury-Wodonga Campus
(enter off Guinea Street, Nowik 1)
Tuesday 2 December 2008, 6 – 7pm
Lisa Mangelsdorf, Head of Campus Office, CSU
Phone: (02) 6051 9806
Email: lmangelsdorf@csu.edu.au

Refreshments will be served following the lecture.