Keeping Comfortable

When visiting the archives, be sure to wear comfortable clothing and shoes. The rooms can be quite cool, so it's a good idea to bring a light sweater or jacket.

Hours Extended

The archives are open from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday. For special events or exhibitions, hours may be extended. Check the website or call ahead to confirm hours.

Research and Classes

The archives offer research services to students, scholars, and the general public. Appointments are recommended for in-depth research. Classes on genealogy, history, and archival practices are also available.

Libraries and Collections

The archives hold a vast collection of documents, photographs, and artifacts related to the history of the region and the institution. These include records of the institution's early years, as well as local and state records. The archives also house a large collection of rare books and manuscripts.

Accessibility

The archives are handicap accessible, with ramps and elevators available. Restrooms are located on each floor. Wheelchair and accessibility chair rentals are available upon request.

Safeguarding

All visitors are required to sign in at the front desk upon arrival. No food or drinks are allowed in the archives. In addition, all backpacks and handbags are subject to inspection.

Visitor Guidelines

Visitors are encouraged to take notes and ask questions of staff members. Please refrain from touching documents. In the event of a fire or other emergency, follow the posted emergency procedures.
