A Short Guide to the Halls of Residence at CSU

LIVE IT, LEARN IT, LOVE IT

Students living in University accommodation are expected to have the ability to advocate their own interests and respect the rights of others.

Residents are expected to accept the responsibilities associated with a shared living environment and abide by the Residence Life Code of Conduct:

- No smoking within four metres of a CSU building
- Tampering with safety equipment is a criminal offence
- You are responsible for your visitors’ behaviour at all times
- Unacceptable behaviour will be reported to the Residence Life Manager.

Noise curfew is enforceable after 10pm.
ZERO tolerance to noise during exam periods, along with dry campus rules.

“What we do

Provide a 24-hour, seven days a week service to campuses, ensuring a safe and secure environment for all staff, students and visitors.

The Security Service provides an invaluable service to the campus community through:

- Safe escort service after dark
- Providing assistance
- Answering inquiries
- Patrolling campus for safety and protection of people and assets
- Providing first aid assistance
- Accepting incident reports from members of the community relating to safety/security incidence, etc.

- Responding to reports about suspicious activity or conduct
- Supervising traffic and parking operation
- Responding to emergencies.

The Security Service can be contacted through office telephones or from any Security telephone located about campus.

All Officers are licensed security operatives as required by the Security Industry Act. All Officers are required to maintain a current Senior First Aid certificate and undergo training in various aspects of their work including fire safety.
