

Bachelor of Arts (Design for Theatre and Television)

YOUR INTERVIEW

Applicants for the Bachelor of Arts (Design for Theatre and Television) degree, are encouraged to attend an interview to assist in the assessment of their application. The interview is an informal, informative discussion with the Course Coordinator to ensure you are fully aware of what the course you are interested in may provide you.

When attending an interview, please bring any relevant portfolio material with you – this can be anything that shows your creativity and/or a resume/CV. If having a telephone interview, please send any relevant portfolio material to the School of Communication & Creative Industries. Please note: this should be copies only.

YOUR COURSE CHOICE

Design in the entertainment industry is an ever changing and exciting career path the Bachelor of Arts (Design for Theatre and Television) will equip graduates with skills in television and theatre design and technical production, and so launch them into rewarding careers in a growing industry.

The course has been designed to provide students with appropriate and transferable skills that will allow them to cross over from theatre to television to film to event staging.

THE INTERVIEW TIMES

Interviews will be conducted in both Sydney and Wagga Wagga. Naturally we would prefer you to come to Charles Sturt University in Wagga Wagga to view the campus and our facilities. For those unable to do so, an interview day has been arranged in Sydney.

PLEASE NOTE

Where the applicant is applying for an interview for more than one course, we will try to make each interview follow on. Please include your email address on this form and we will send you confirmation of your interview.

Please complete the Interview Form (over) and return by Monday 21 November 2011
