CIS Research Reports

Series editor: Professor Ross Harvey

The Centre for Information Studies at Charles Sturt University aims to support and commission high quality research in the area of library and information science. Its particular strength is in the publication of high quality texts in library and information science, teacher librarianship and Australian literature for young people. The CIS Research Reports series is intended to disseminate the results of library and information science research to the wider academic and professional community. Proposals for publications should be addressed initially to the Centre for Information Studies (cis@csu.edu.au). Publications in this series include:
