

Position Vacant-Trainee Winemaker

Tower Estate was established in 1999 by the late Len Evans AO OBE. We produce super premium wines from New South Wales, South Australia and Tasmania. We are looking for a fit and energetic trainee winemaker who will undertake all manner of duties required to produce, package and distribute fine wine, including vineyard and promotional duties as required. The key requirements for this position are a high work ethic, attention to detail and good health. This role will ideally suit someone who is studying at tertiary level, or who has just completed university, who is looking for practical experience.
