

Bachelor of Business (Banking)

includes:

Bachelor of Business (Banking)

The Bachelor of Business (Banking) provides specialised formal knowledge, capabilities and competencies in banking and related business areas. The course includes practical industry placements and professional internships, one in each of the three years of study starting with 35 hours in the first year, 70 hours in the second and 120 hours in the final year of study. Additionally, students may undertake a joint study in a second prescribed discipline area, or develop knowledge in non-business subjects of their choice. The Degree is designed to produce graduates who are skilled and work-ready in their selected discipline or profession.

The course includes the following awards:

Bachelor of Business (Banking) BBus(Bank)

Joint Studies

A joint study is a prescribed set of subjects taken from a discipline other than Accounting or Business. Students are able to use the title of the joint study in conjunction with Bachelor of Accounting (e.g. Bachelor of Accounting/Finance, Bachelor of Business (Human Resource Management/Industrial Relations)). This course includes the following Joint Study options:

JOINT STUDIES

A joint study is a prescribed set of subjects taken from a discipline other than the chosen specialisation. Students are then able to use the title of the joint study in conjunction with the specialisation (e.g., Bachelor of Business (Management/Finance)).

For a Joint Study either from within the Faculty of Business or from another Faculty, students must take an established sequence or set of five subjects. Established sequences are determined by Faculty Board. Students must ensure that they take the necessary prerequisites.

If a Joint Study is chosen from those offered within the Faculty of Business, it must be in an area other than that of the specialisation chosen. No more than two subjects can be counted towards a Joint Study if they have already been undertaken as part of a specialisation. A student cannot claim more than one Joint Study.

Students enrolled through the CSU Study Centres may only choose the Accounting, Management or Marketing joint studies.
