

Bachelor of Psychology (Honours)

includes:

Bachelor of Psychology (Honours) Bachelor of Psychology [Exit Point Only]

The Bachelor of Psychology is a four year Australian Psychology Accreditation Council (APAC) accredited degree. The course aims are based on the Standards provided by APAC (2010) and the CSU Degree Initiative Design Principles. In general, the course aims to both provide graduates with the academic requirements for registration as a Psychologist (the professional aim) and an understanding of the basis of human behaviour (the disciplinary aim). These aims include providing students with a number of analytic and service directed skills that will have relevance to a broad range of employment areas including research. Specifically, the Bachelor of Psychology aims to provide students with an education in the discipline of psychology and an introduction to the application of psychology as well as to develop competence in research.

The course includes the following awards:

Bachelor of Psychology BPsych

Bachelor of Psychology (Honours) BPsych(Hons)

On Campus - Port Macquarie

On Campus - Wagga Wagga

Availability is subject to change, please verify prior to enrolment.

Normal course duration

Bachelor of Psychology [Exit Point Only]

Full-time 4 years (8.0 sessions)

All students have the opportunity to include subjects offered in Session 3 in their enrolment as desired. On-campus students may take advantage of the accelerated enrolment patterns set out for the Bachelor of Social Science (Psychology) course in order to complete the first three years of this course over two calendar years. Students who choose this option will need to ensure that they satisfy the Bachelor of Psychology course requirements. They will not be able to base any claim of special consideration on their chosen study pattern e.g., as it may relate to academic performance and progression to fourth year or transfer to Honours. This option will allow on-campus students to complete this course over a total of three calendar years. Students may transfer to the Honours Stream at the end of the equivalent of 3.0 years full time (i.e. all 24 level 1 - 3 subjects including elective and minor subjects) if the GPA requirement is met.

Bachelor of Psychology (Honours)

Full-time 4.0 years (8.0 sessions)

All students have the opportunity to include subjects offered in Session 3 in their enrolment as desired. On-campus students may take advantage of the accelerated enrolment patterns set out for the Bachelor of Social Science (Psychology) course in order to complete the first three years of this course over two calendar years. Students who choose this option will need to ensure that they satisfy the Bachelor of Psychology course requirements. They will not be able to base any claim of special consideration on their chosen study pattern e.g., as it may relate to academic performance and progression to fourth year or transfer to Honours. This option will allow on-campus students to complete this course over three calendar years.

Normal course duration is the effective period of time taken to complete a course when studied Full-time (Full-time Equivalent: FTE). Students are advised to consult the Enrolment Pattern for the actual length of study. Not all courses are offered in Full-time mode.

Bachelor of Psychology (Honours)

To graduate students must satisfactorily complete 256 points.

Bachelor of Psychology [Exit Point Only]

To graduate students must satisfactorily complete 256 points.

Course Structure

The Bachelor of Psychology/Bachelor of Psychology (Honours) is a four year degree that splits into two strands in fourth year, a pass strand and an honours strand. Progression into fourth year is dependent upon a high level of academic performance. Students who do not meet the criteria for progression into fourth year will transfer to and graduate from the Bachelor of Social Science (Psychology) which is a three year degree.

The pass strand comprises:

- 19 core psychology subjects (8 points each);
- two compulsory sociology subjects (8 points each);
- a minor of six subjects from a cognate discipline (48 points in total), one of which must be a Level 3 subject;
- two electives (8 points each); and
- a research project (24 points)

The Honours strand comprises:

- 18 core psychology subjects (8 points each);
- two compulsory sociology subjects (8 points each);
- a minor of six subjects from a cognate discipline (48 points in total), one of which must be a Level 3 subject;

- two electives (8 points each); and
- a dissertation (32 points)

Minor

Students must take a minor of six subjects, at least one of which must be at Level 3, in one of the discipline areas listed below. Subjects are delivered internally at the campus or campuses specified in parentheses, however all minor sequences are also available by distance education.

- Biology (Wagga Wagga)
- English (Bathurst & Wagga Wagga)
- History and Politics (Bathurst & Wagga Wagga)
- Human Resource Management (Bathurst, Port Macquarie & Wagga Wagga)
- Indigenous Studies (Distance Education only)
- Information Technology (Bathurst & Wagga Wagga)
- Justice Studies (Bathurst & Port Macquarie)
- Management (Bathurst, Port Macquarie & Wagga Wagga)
- Marketing (Bathurst, Port Macquarie & Wagga Wagga)
- Mathematics and Statistics (Wagga Wagga)

- Philosophy (Wagga Wagga)
- Social Welfare (Wagga Wagga)
- Sociology (Wagga Wagga)

Note: Students who choose Sociology as a minor complete four sociology subjects (one of which must be a Level 3 subject) in addition to the two compulsory sociology subjects (SOC101 and SOC102); they will need to choose four electives.

Details of the subjects included in each of these minors may be obtained from psychadmin@csu.edu.au. On-campus students may have to complete some or all subjects in their chosen minor by distance education mode. Students may take any six subjects from one of the areas listed provided they meet the prerequisites/assumed knowledge requirements and include at least one Level 3 subject. A minor in another discipline may be taken with the approval of the Course Coordinator: email psychadmin@csu.edu.au

Electives

The two electives (four if the minor is in Sociology) can be chosen from any of the discipline areas listed above or from the following psychology electives:

- PSY211 Psychology of Crime
- PSY214 Health Psychology
- PSY218 Psychology of Substance Abuse
- PSY219 Psychology International Experience
- PSY313 Psychology and the Legal System
- PSY316 Psychology of Stress and Trauma

Pass Strand

Progression into the pass strand requires a Grade Point Average (GPA) of between 5.0 and 5.99 calculated across Level 2 and 3 core psychology subjects (11), and a minimum GPA of 5.0 for the Level 3 core psychology subjects (6). Students who satisfy these criteria will complete:

- PSY404 Psychological Assessment*
 - PSY420 Ethics and Current Issues in Psychology*
 - PSY436 Research Project (24 points)*
 - PSY437 Counselling Theory and Practice*

Enrolment Pattern

Suggested Enrolment Patterns

The following enrolment patterns illustrate how the course is usually completed at a full-time rate over four years for on-campus students, and at a part-time rate over eight years for distance education students. On-campus students may take advantage of the accelerated enrolment patterns set out for the Bachelor of Social Science (Psychology) course, in order to complete the first three years of this course over two calendar years. Students who choose this option will need to ensure that they satisfy the Bachelor of Psychology course requirements. They will not be able to base any claim of special consideration on their chosen study pattern e.g., as it may relate to academic performance and progression to fourth year or transfer to Honours.
