Graduate Certificate in Industrial Relations

includes:

Graduate Certificate in Industrial Relations

The Graduate Certificate in Industrial Relations program provides graduates with specialized knowledge in the Australian industrial relations system which will enable them to understand the legal context; roles of trade unions, employers, federal and state government; negotiation; mediation and conflict resolution skills; its relationship with other human resource functions as well as strategic contributions. The program is designed to produce graduates with the theoretical frameworks and analytical tools necessary to manage successfully, to act professionally and ethically in their chosen field and to add significant value to their organisations.

The course includes the following awards:

Graduate Certificate in Industrial Relations GradCertIndRel

Course Study Modes and Locations

Graduate Certificate in Industrial Relations (2302NR)

Distance Education - Wagga Wagga

Availability is subject to change, please verify prior to enrolment.

Normal course duration

Graduate Certificate in Industrial Relations

Full-time 0.5 years (1.0 sessions)

Normal course duration is the effective period of time taken to complete a course when studied Full-time (Full-time Equivalent: FTE). Students are advised to consult the Enrolment Pattern for the actual length of study. Not all courses are offered in Full-time mode.

Admission criteria

CSU Admission Policy

Applicants without a tertiary qualification may be admitted to the Graduate Certificate in Industrial Relations on the basis of professional attainment and/or work experience. Upon successful completion of the Graduate Certificate, students will then be eligible for admission to a number of Masters programs offered by the Faculty of Business and receive credit for applicable subjects.

Credit

CSU Credit Policy

No special arrangements apply.

Graduation requirements

To graduate students must satisfactorily complete 32 points.

Course Structure

The course comprises four core subjects.

Core subjects

INR501 Industrial Relations Environment
INR502 Industrial Relations Systems and Issues
INR503 Industrial Relations Practice
LAW515 Law of Employment

Enrolment Pattern

Students may choose the order in which they undertake subjects, depending upon the availability of subjects and the meeting of any pre-requisites. Students should check the CSU Handbook or contact the relevant Course Director for further details.

Contact

For further information about Charles Sturt University, or this course offering, please contact info.csu on 1800 334 733 (free call within Australia) or email inquiry@csu.edu.au

The information contained in the 2016 CSU Handbook was accurate at the date of publication: October 2015. The University reserves the right to vary the information at any time without notice.

Back   3