

Graduate Diploma of Inclusive Education

includes:

Graduate Diploma of Inclusive Education

The Graduate Diploma of Inclusive Education is designed for teachers who would like to develop expertise in the inclusive education field. The course provides teachers with basic training in special education and the opportunity to increase their status in the teaching profession, increase eligibility for promotion and gain recognition as a teacher with inclusive education professional qualifications. The development of practical skills is a vital component of this course. Students already employed in some capacity in the field complete the practicum requirements within their current teaching role if there are children requiring special education in the class.

The course includes the following awards:
