

Master of Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security)

includes:

Master of Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security)

The Master of Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security) provides graduates with specialised knowledge and skills in leadership and management in the context of the law enforcement and security professions. The degree is designed to produce inspirational leaders and effective and accountable managers who are able to enhance organisational performance and set and attain organisational strategic goals through sound, ethical practice and innovation.

The course includes the following awards:

Master of Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security)
MBA(LawEnforce&Security)

Course Study Modes and Locations

Master of Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security) (2714LS)

Distance Education - Wagga Wagga

Availability is subject to change, please verify prior to enrolment.

Normal course duration

Master of Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security)

Full-time 1.5 years (3.0 sessions)

Part-time 3.0 years (6.0 sessions)

Normal course duration is the effective period of time taken to complete a course when studied Full-time (Full-time Equivalent: FTE). Students are advised to consult the Enrolment Pattern for the actual length of study. Not all courses are offered in Full-time mode.

Admission criteria

CSU Admission Policy

For entry to the Master of Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security) applicants are required to have an undergraduate degree from a recognised Australian tertiary institution (or equivalent) and appropriate work experience. Applicants without a tertiary qualification may be admitted to the Graduate Certificate in Commerce on the basis of professional attainment and/or work experience. Upon successful completion of the Graduate Certificate, students will then be eligible for admission to the Master Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security) and receive credit for applicable subjects.

Credit

CSU Credit Policy

Credit into the Master of Business Administration (Law Enforcement and Security) is awarded based on studies completed at postgraduate or equivalent level. Students may receive credit for up to 50% of the course (six 8 point subjects) for studies completed within the last ten years.

No credit will be given for subjects completed at the undergraduate level. However, in some circumstances, candidates may be waived from taking particular subjects, e.g. a candidate with a Bachelor degree majoring in Accounting may be waived from undertaking the Core subject MBA504 Accounting and Financial Management. In such instances, an alternative subject is substituted.

Graduation requirements

To graduate students must satisfactorily complete 96 points.

Course Structure

The twelve subject (96 point) MBA includes subjects divided into three groups. The course structure provides students with the ability to tailor their degree to suit their needs and career aspirations.

Core Subjects: Students need to complete all four Core subjects.

MGT501 Management Theory and Practice

MKT501 Marketing Management

MBA504 Accounting & Financial Management

MGT510 Strategic Management

Restricted Elective Subjects (Group A): Students need to complete four of the ten Group A Restricted Elective subjects.

- ECO501 Business Economics
- FIN516 Corporate Finance
- HRM502 Human Resource Management
- MGT550 Operations Management
- HRM507 Research Methods
- MGT559 Contemporary Issues in Leadership
- MGT540 Management of Change
- MGT547 Ethics of Corporate Governance
- MGT553 Project Management
- MGT583 Managing for Sustainability

Restricted Elective Subjects (Group B - Specialisation Subjects): Students need to complete two of the three Specialisation subjects.

- GPM425 Applied Management in Law Enforcement and Security (16 points)
- GPM428 Operational Command (16 points)
- GPM512 Executive Leadership in Law Enforcement and Security (16 points)

Enrolment Pattern

Due to the flexibility of the course requirements, there is no prescribed enrolment pattern. Using the following guidelines, students may choose the order in which they undertake subjects.

Contact

Current Students

For any enquiries about subject selection or course structure you will need to contact your Course Director. You can find the name and contact details for your Course Director in your offer letter or contact your School office.

Prospective Students

For further information about Charles Sturt University, or this course offering, please contact info.csu on 1800 334 733 (free call within Australia) or enquire online.

The information contained in the 2017 CSU Handbook was accurate at the date of publication: May 2017. The University reserves the right to vary the information at any time without notice.

Back