“Adventures in Bovine Pathology”

Claus Buergelt

Professor Emeritus, University of Florida

When: Monday February 13th, 2012

Where: Green Room

Time: 10.00 am (refreshments 9.30 am)

Background:

Claus Buergelt has had a long and enviable career at the University of Florida (UF).

He led the UF Gross Pathology team for many years, has just completed a number of sessions teaching veterinary Pathology at Cornell University and has trained a plethora of veterinary pathologists.

His main interests are Bovine Pathology, Johnes Disease and Reproductive Pathology (in which he wrote a well received book). His wealth of experience and insights ensure that this is a must-attend seminar.
